

ZERO

Almost Ready-to-Fly GP/EP Sport Warbird

SPORT FIGHTER SERIES

“In the Fight” Realism – In flight ease

The Great Planes Zero delivers the same speed and maneuverability that made its full-scale counterpart one of the deadliest dogfighters of WWII. This sport fighter model can be built and equipped with your choice of glow or electric power. Experience a piece of warbird history today.

- Flies fast and tracks well through all sport aerobatics - slows for stable approaches and solid, predictable landings.
- Factory-built of balsa/ply for the best in lightweight strength.
- Low parts count.
- Features an authentic scale trim scheme done in high-quality heat-shrink film and a decal sheet with scale markings.
- Includes a high-quality fiberglass cowl painted to match the trim scheme.
- Large hatch provides easy access for maintenance and battery changes.
- Complete hardware package includes a spinner and parts for a motor mount box.
- Lets you save by recycling inexpensive standard servos and radios from .46-size trainers.
