

75AX ABL

The green light to go from .60 to .75

Power up your big bird the easy way: simply swap out your 61FX with the awesome 75AX ABL! It uses the same mount and fits the exact same bolt pattern, so there's no modifications required. The angular head not only looks sharp, it also significantly increases surface area for better cooling. The needle is placed diagonally, so you don't need a remote needle valve. Plus, you get the Power Box muffler that's small in size, but robust in volume.

- Fits the same mount and bolt pattern as the 61FX
- Angular head design increases surface area for better cooling
- Included Power Box™ muffler boosts power while being compact
- Diagonally placed needle means no remote valve is required
