MORE REALISTIC TANKS FOR DRIVING, DISPLAYING AND DUELING!

German Pz 753r Green

The German counterpart to the Soviet Army's KV-1, the Pz 753r was fitted with the same high-velocity 75 mm gun used in a Panzer IV. VSKD74 1/24 German Pz 753r Green RTR

VSKD82

Russian KV-1 Soviet Army Green & KV-1B Soviet Army Green

The KV-1 was an integral part of Russia's defense against the German invasion in June, 1941. The KV-1B variant featured more protective armor on the turret and the front and sides of the hull. VSKD81 1/24 Russian KV-1 Soviet Army Green RTR VSKD82 1/24 Russian KV-1B Soviet Army Green RTR

- Details usually reserved for static display models, including intricate scale accessories and painted tank commander/gunner figures
- Independent all-wheel suspensions let you conquer rugged terrain and inclines of up to 35°
- Maneuver your VSTank with 3 speeds forward, 2 reverse, 2 turning speeds and even a stationary pivot
- Tank recoils and emits battle sounds when you hit the "fire" button
- A switch on the bottom of the tank lets you control the sound volume for indoor or outdoor action

COMBAT CAPABLE!

Engage in armored combat with up to 5 other VSTanks! Hitting the sensor on the opposing tank's turret with your infrared beam registers a "hit" — five "hits" disable that tank.

From the Experts:

Military history buffs look forward to every new VSTank model, and for good reason. Each is a scale replica worthy of display — but R/Cers also enjoy the fact that they come Ready-To-Run both indoors and out, and are equipped to wage wireless warfare with other VSTanks!

Long story short...

Choose the German Pz 753r, Soviet KV-1 or KV-1B, and command a scale model of an actual WWII battle tank!

While primarily used by the U.S.S.R. and their allies, some were captured and refitted by German troops during WWII. Its highly elevated DT machine gun allowed it to be successful in urban combat situations against enemy troops situated in tall buildings. BA-64s also proved to be effective in returning fire against enemy fighters as well. Kit features a detailed driver's cabin, realistic tires and five crew figures.

Pegasus Hobbies 1/48 Scale EZ-Snapz Messerschmitt Bf 109E-4

A snap to assemble!

First appearing at the start of the Battle of Britain, the Messerschmitt Bf 109E-4 included multiple upgrades over the previous variant, the Bf 109E-3. Such improvements ranged from stronger head armor for pilots to modified 20 mm MG-FF/M wing cannons which could fire explosive, drawn-steel mine shells. Another key difference was a squared-off canopy, which gave pilots a better field of vision. This easy-to-assemble, snap-together kit features authentic WWII pilot markings with the option of stickers or waterslide decals.
