REVELL® 1/25 '51 ANGLIA COUPE

British built, blazing fast

Although they were too small for the blown big block engines popular with the chopped muscle cars of the great era of American motorsport, the 1950's era Anglias had one very distinct advantage—they were super cheap. Plus, with their small size, even relatively small engines could make them really move. Because of their novelty status and speed, they rapidly became crowd favorites. Kit features a detailed small block V-8 engine, opening doors and trunk lid, full racing interior, chrome parts, and soft black tires.

REVELL 1/25 '57 CHEVY® BLACK WIDOW 2N1

Track-heavy Chevy

Thanks to its low curb weight and high curb appeal, the Chevy 150 was extremely popular with hot rodders. Chevy embraced the racing pedigree of the 150 with the "Black Widow" racing stock car. These non-production cars were built by Southern Engineering and Development Company—a special builder set up by GM. All "Black Widows" were based on the 1957 150 Utility Sedan. Many proved highly successful, with wins at the National Championship and elsewhere. Kit features option to build as factory stock 150 Utility Sedan or Black Widow, choice of stock single carb or fuel injection engine, six lug stock wheels with dog dish hub caps, and soft black tires.

REVELL GERMANY 1/144 AIRBUS A350-900

LUFTHANSA

Tray tables up

With well over 8,000 miles of range and capacity for over 300 passengers, the Airbus A350-900 is one of the best wide-body twin-engine jets in the world. And, even though the A350-900 measures fuel consumption in tons by the hour, it claims to have superior fuel efficiency to the Boeing 777-its direct competitor. Kit features replica cockpit, detailed engines, rotating front fan, detailed under carriage including textured main under carriage bay, navigation lights, antennae, display stand, and decals for one Lufthansa aircraft.

REVELL GERMANY PORSCHE 934 SPECIAL LIVERIES

Fast in any color

Forty years after the first Tamiya Porsche 934 hit the markets, the tradition is still going strong. This year's 934 features an inspiring and distinctive Jägermeister livery that's nearly vivid enough to get drunk on. Plus, there's a sea green Vaillant trim scheme available for those who like the speed of the Porsche without the herb-flavored liqueur. Whether you go bright orange (7031) or sea green (7032), you'll be going fast. Strap in. Both kits feature multi-part bodies, opening hoods, rotating wheels, and full decals.

REVELL GERMANY 1/24 MCLAREN 570S

200K, 21 MPG

Cash in that trust fund. The McLaren 570S is a piece of precision engineering beauty, but it doesn't come cheap. No, if you want a 562 horsepower, 3.8 liter, twin-turbocharged V-8 powered beast like the 570S, you better hope your granddad invested his oil money well. Plus, it's considered to be actually drivable. Imagine that. Actual luggage space and a somewhat comfortable ride for only $200,000-ish dollars. You can even get it with leather interior for extra. Kit features multi-part body, open or closed doors, left or right hand drive, and lots of registration plate decals.

HASEGAWA® 1/72 SCALE RENZAN WITH GUIDED BOMB AND SHINDENKAI (2 KITS)

The threat that never was

By 1944, Japan desperately needed aircraft that could turn the tide of WWII. The Renzan was a long-range heavy bomber perfect for smashing island airfields. It was also capable of delivering the I-Goh, a guided bomb intended to break American naval supremacy. To counter America's aerial superiority, Japan designed the Shindenkai—a pusher-style canard fighter armed with four 30mm cannon. Fortunately, most of these designs never left the ground. You can own all three of these remarkable weapons from one limited edition kit combo that features six sets of decals!

HASEGAWA 1/72 SHIN MEIWA PS-1 "31ST SQUADRON"

Saving lives

As a flying boat, the Shin Meiwa PS-1 is perfectly suited for maritime Air Search-Rescue missions. Its massive range, long loiter time, and moderately slow flying speed make it the perfect platform for searching long stretches of the Pacific. Once a distressed vessel is found, the PS-1 has the option of landing on the water and taking survivors on board directly. This limited edition kit features decals for two JASDF PS-1 aircraft.

Papa 1/25 Tyrone Malone Kenworth Transporter Papa Truck

Hauling the main attraction

To get the hard-driving, 1000 horsepower diesel-powered "Super Boss Truck" across the country to its various events, Tyrone Malone needed a whale of a semi. His "Papa Truck" was a 1976 Kenworth COE (cab over engine) huge enough to haul the massively heavy "Super Boss" on a specially designed flatbed back. So equipped, Tyrone Malone was able to display his trucks all over the country and even internationally in service to his Bandag sponsors. Kit features full color decal sheet with improved graphics, factory pre-lettered truck tires, gleaming chrome parts, and vintage packaging.

In honor of that speedy heritage, this model arrives pre-painted so you can have a picture-perfect, display-ready model as soon as you open the box. Kit features detailed, pre-painted parts and decorated body shell plus defroster lines, 2-color taillights, emblems, gauges, and more.

AMT 1/25 1949 Ford Coupe Gas Man

Fast and ugly

It was 1949, and, with the war years just behind them, it was perhaps permissible for the designers at Ford to make such an incalculably ugly automobile. After years without cars, the '49 was well received as it was a completely new design with integrated fenders, a tough steel frame, and comparatively well streamlined designs. Years later, these vehicles would be extremely popular with modifiers and drag racers. Thus, the "Gas Man", with its blown engine and unique features, was born. Kit features restored trophy base, two sets of drag slicks, improved vintage decals, plus retro-style packaging by Don Greer.

Bandai Gundam IBO 1/100 Full Mechanics Barbatos Lupus

Up close and personal

Barbatos Lupus is designed with Mikazuki Augus in mind. His gundam is therefore light, swift, and designed to shrug hits as he closes in for the kill. That isn't to say it's not capable of ranged combat-its twin 200mm cannons are incredible but they can't match the sheer mayhem of sword or mace. Kit features a huge arsenal, detailed internal skeleton, and color separated parts.

Before the fire was under control 27 men were dead with another 314 injured.
