Venture Toyota FJ Cruiser 4WD Ready-To-Run Crawler

Choose from two colors of the fully licensed replica body, equipped with lots of scale touches such as bumpers, mirrors, functional roof rack, swing-away spare tire mount and 1.9" Rockthorn tires mounted on beadlock-style multi-spoke wheels.

- Ready to take on any off-road challenge, with reinforced steel C-channel chassis rails
- The 35T crawler spec motor and transmission are front-mounted, just like on a full-size truck, to improve climbing ability
- For added weight up front, the steering servo is mounted next to the motor
- A transmission drive ratio of 1.53:1 ensures you'll get up and down most trails and climb difficult inclines
- Drive with confidence knowing that the oil-filled shocks and aggressive-tread tires can handle the most unforgiving terrain

From the Experts:

By outfitting a rugged off-road platform with the popular Toyota FJ Cruiser body, HPI has taken crawling to a new level! Performance is a given, thanks to advanced engineering and amazing durability. And the admiring looks from other drivers is a bonus you're sure to enjoy!

Long story short...

HPI's Venture Toyota FJ Cruiser combines spectacular scale crawling with superior realism!

Custom polycarbonate body panels give these rides realistic looks. The Sidewinder is fitted with off-road tires; the TSK-b rolls on HB Rodeo SC tires.

Bring on whatever obstacles you can imagine: 4 mm aluminum monocoque chassis, one-piece rear hubs and heavy-duty suspensions will keep you in the action.

HPI RELEASES THE KRAKENS!

KRAKEN BAJA 5B READY-TO-RUN NITRO CONVERSIONS

- In partnership with Kraken RC, HPI Racing is rolling out two different Ready-To-Run off-roaders fitted with functional modular roll cages
- For fans of the classic dune buggy, the Sidewinder boasts a tube frame design that replicates the latest generation of desert fun machines
- The TSK-b is a true racing buggy styled after competitors in endurance events such as the Baja 1000 in the 'Class 1' division
- Both are equipped with Fuelie K26 nitro pull-start engines that deliver authentic-sounding power and extreme speeds
- A large 700cc fuel tank offers run time of up to 45 minutes

From the Experts:

Kraken RC is one of the most prominent aftermarket manufacturers in RC, and tricking out the HPI Baja 5B with their roll cages and body panels gives these already-popular off-roaders even more appeal. You still get all of the durability and performance perks that HPI has to offer — all you have to do is choose the conversion that suits your style!

Long story short...

Experience the Baja 5B like never before — fully loaded and wrapped in genuine Kraken roll cages!

jumpshot mt FLUX FUZION

A QUANTUM LEAP FORWARD IN MONSTER TRUCK PERFORMANCE!

Jumpshot MT FLUX Fuzion Brushless 2WD Ready-To-Run Monster Truck

- The FLUX Fuzion 2700kV brushless motor and LiPo-ready speed control take up the same space as a standard 540-size motor by itself
- Besides being smaller and lighter, the motor/ESC combo is more user-friendly and offers a cleaner installation with fewer wires
- Take on any off-road surface with the Jumpshot's proven tough TVP (Twin Vertical Plate) chassis and durable 2WD drivetrain
- Enjoy effortless control with robust direct steering
- The battery compartment is easy to access, for quick pack changes

Large all-terrain tires grip the surface securely, and they're mounted on 6-spoke chrome wheels.

A double-wishbone suspension, oil-filled shocks and sturdy gear diffs are just a few of the features that give the Jumpshot MT FLUX Fuzion its toughness.

EXTREME PERFORMANCE, WITH LOOKS TO MATCH

SAVAGE XS FLUX VAUGHN GITTIN JR. BRUSHLESS 4WD READY-TO-RUN MONSTER TRUCK

- Shaft-driven 4WD provides excellent handling on any surface you can throw at it
- As fast as it is sturdy, with a FLUX 4000kV brushless motor and EMH-35 speed control that produce unmatched speeds of over 65 mph
- The battery box accepts 6-cell NiMH as well as standard LiPo batteries
- Comes with Power Pin tires set off by bright green wheels and springs
- Sized to go where larger monster trucks can't — perfect for backyard bashing!

You'll stand out from everyone else with the custom "geometric" trim scheme made famous by Formula D champion Vaughn Gittin Jr.

This basher still boasts the composite TVP (Twin Vertical Plate) chassis, waterproof electronics and all-metal drivetrain that have made the Savage XS the toughest mini-monster in the world.

From the Experts:

It's still the same super-durable Savage XS, but this version is tricked out with Vaughn Gittin Jr.'s signature edition colors that give it a one-of-a-kind look. Heads will turn while you're nailing jumps, flips and drift moves with this mean machine...and looking sharp doing it!

1/25 2018 MUSTANG GT

The new breed

When the first Mustang rolled onto the street in 1964, it was the start of a revolution. The "Pony Car" gave America the first sporty car that virtually everyone could afford. Today, the 2018 Mustang GT honors the heritage, but blazes its own trail. It's lower, wider, and available with three engine choices: V6, V8, or the all new, incredibly green 2.3 liter Eco-Boost 4-cylinder. Kit features snap-together construction and rolling wheels.

1/25 '66 CHEVY® SUBURBAN

Power and space

The Suburban has a rich history and is in fact the longest continuously used nameplate still in production today. The Suburban can be defined as a station wagon based on a pickup truck chassis. As Chevy® has changed its pickup trucks, so too has the Suburban changed. It has spanned eleven generations of trucks. This 1966 Suburban is part of the fifth generation started in 1960. Kit features detailed 283 c.i. V8 engine, two rows of interior seating, whitewall tire inserts, and underside spare tire.

1/2700 IMPERIAL STAR DESTROYER

The iron fist of Empire

Capital ships like the Imperial Star Destroyer project the will of the Emperor far beyond Coruscant. Everywhere it goes, the sheer odds against victory dissuade many from attempting to rebel. This intimidation is exactly what the Rebellion aims to end. The vessels may be loaded with turbo lasers, tractor beams, and swarms of fighters... but they aren't invincible. Kit features display stand and gun positions.

1/72 SEVEN YEARS WAR AUSTRIAN AND PRUSSIAN INFANTRY

Changing the world

Europe was no stranger to upheaval, but the Seven Years War turned the established order on its head and drastically shifted the course of history. On the continent, massed infantry attacks in close order were still the tactic of the day. Soldiers levied from the citizenry of Prussia and Austria were drilled rigorously, then marched off to face the muskets. Holding the line against enemy volleys took incredible courage and sacrifice, but breaking formation exposed troops to cavalry. Kit features armed soldiers in various poses, an ensign trooper, officers on horseback, and a drummer.

1/35 SD.KFZ. 167 STUG IV

Hammer of the Reich

Germany was desperate for vehicles that could fill the ever-widening gaps in the Panzer armies by 1943. The StuG IV—a StuG III casemate and gun on top of a panzer chassis—fit the bill. With a 75mm gun, it was more than capable of knocking out opposing tanks. Plus, its casemate gun was much easier and cheaper to produce than a full turret. Over one thousand rolled off lines and were rushed into combat. Only three restored versions are currently known. Kit features easy to assemble assault gun with elevating cannon, removable side skirts, figure, and full decals.

1/96 CUTTY SARK

The fastest of them all

Well after the steamship was invented, the Cutty Sark was still the fastest ship on the seas. Her brass-clad hull cleaved the waves as taut sails pulled her at 17 knots. The ship hauled thousands of tons of tea every year for her owners. After the tea trade was taken over by newer ships, the Sark endured as a training ship and a museum. Now you can build the Cutty Sark! Kit features fully detailed two-piece hull, representation of brass plating, wood grain detail, authentic sails, rigging thread, metal anchor chain, life boats, rigging pulleys, display stand, and full decals.

Powerful perfection

Seventy miles per hour with the pedal to the floor. The V8 roars like a jungle cat. Eighty miles per hour and the headlights carve a bright swathe through the Mojave night. Ninety and the cigarette's burning close to the fingers; can't take hands off the wheel. One hundred, not runnin' from nothin'. One ten, not goin' nowhere. Red lines on the RPM, red lines on the speed. No more gears and nothing to lose. Just 100 more miles to nothing. Kit features multi-part 5.8 litre engine, chrome parts, and full decals.

1/24 LANCIA STRATOS

Victory in your grasp

The three time world rallying champion Lancia Stratos HF was a supremely sleek vehicle custom designed for rally racing and powered by a V6 engine. In 1975, the Lancia Stratos went up against the twisting, tortuous circuit of the "Tour de Corse" on the narrow, winding roads of Corsica. It won the 1975 race as well as the 1974, 1976, 1979, and even the 1981. In the world of rally racing, it's a legend. This limited edition kit features rubber tires.

1/72 CAPRONI CA.311/311M

Recon and destruction

Through the wide open, fully clear nose, the endless sands of North Africa look almost peaceful. Somewhere ahead, there's war. Today's mission is pure recon. A few photographs of troop deployments and enemy positions, then back to base as fast as possible. The three crewmen sweat, and not just because of the heat. If those dots on the horizon are enemy fighters, the Caproni can't outrun, outfight, or outmaneuver them. The dots get larger. Three men hold their breath. Kit features detailed parts and four sets of decals.

1/72 THE LAST OUTPOST—FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR 1754-1763

Fighting for a home

In many ways, the Seven Years or French and Indian War was the world's first world war. It was fought in both the old world and the new. In North America, Native American allies and extensive forested terrain turned every fight into a deadly mix of ambushes and fierce fights for strong points. Set features an MDF outpost with bridge, watchtower, fences, barricades, barrels, and cavalry obstacles plus a total of 114 figures including 32 American (colonial British), 49 French, 16 Indian, and 17 British figures.

1/48 HURRICANE MK.1 TROP

Over the desert

While their comrades were fighting the Battle of Britain, the tropicalized variants of the Hawker Hurricane were sent to North Africa for an equally deadly assignment. They had to replace the local mostly biplane forces and fight off the Italians and, later, the Afrika Korps. It wasn't easy. Despite improvements like dust screens and survival equipment loaded on the Hurricanes, enemy fighters exacted a fearsome toll. Nevertheless, Hurricanes held the line and helped drive the Axis back out of the desert. Kit features six decal versions and photo etched parts.

1/35 M14/41 WITH ITALIAN INFANTRY

Desert diesels

North Africa is an inhospitable place to fight. For the M14 and earlier M13 which were intended for combat in the mountains, it was brutal. These tanks were in armament and armor equal or superior to their opponents in the early stages of the war, but their crews were sent to the front with as little as a month of training in the tank. Losses were heavy, but the type fought on through the end of the war. Kit features four sets of decals for units in North Africa and Italy.

1/24 VOLKSWAGEN TYPE 2 DELIVERY VAN "MOON EQUIPPED"

A unique look for a '60s icon

Introduced in 1950, the Volkswagen Type 2 is considered the forerunner of today's cargo and passenger vans. However, it's most famously associated with the counterculture movements of the late 1960s and early 1970s, who nicknamed the Type 2 the "hippie-mobile," the "hippie bus" and the "hippie van." Today, the vehicle remains popular with custom builders like the Mooneyes company, who often add performance parts like chrome exhaust systems to this cult favorite. This limited edition kit features metal wheel caps and "Moon Equipped" markings.

EGG PLANE F-86 SABRE "TAIWAN AIR FORCE"

The swept-wing "Sabrejet"

The F-86 Sabre is most famous for fighting against Soviet MiG-15s during the Korean War. However, this iconic aircraft has more stories to tell. During the late 1950s, the Taiwan Air Force received over 320 surplus F-86s and several AIM-9 Sidewinder missiles. During 1958's Second Taiwan Strait Crisis, F-86s were used to deploy Sidewinders for the first time in air-to-air combat against Communist China's MiG-15s and MiG-17s. Spotting the shells

Yamato was the biggest battleship ever created. She carried seven aircraft like the E8N intended for reconnaissance and spotting the fall of her 18.1 inch shells. In the Second Sino-Japanese War, these aircraft extended the effective radius of action of large capital ships by keeping them apprised of any enemies in the area. By the time of WWII, however, these biplanes were largely obsolete and were replaced by newer types after the critical Battle of Midway.
